

Mail Order Videos/Resources

The Rural Media Company have a selection of our videos and resources available to purchase mail order, simply fill out the form below and post it together with a cheque made payable to:

'Rural Media Company', to: Rural Media Company, Sullivan House, 72-80 Widemarsh Street, Hereford HR4 9HG.

All prices are inclusive of vat and UK postage & packing.

Please allow 7-10 working days for delivery.

Title		Price	Qty	Total
Alien Voices - "Being a Teenager should be something to look forward to!" At turns, atmospheric and humorous, the video addresses issues important to rural young people.		On VHS @ £5.00
All Aboard - Challenging prejudices about people with disabilities A minibus breaking down forces the bus driver to face his prejudices about his disabled passengers.		On VHS @ £5.00
Black, White & Green – Rural Racism The posters depict strong images of rural racism, mixed race and Traveller young people who present their feelings using statements. Set of 3 full colour posters.		Posters @ £10.00 for the set
Check Your Head - Can you beat stress? Designed to raise awareness and understanding of mental health and emotional well being amongst young people.		On CD-Rom @ £40.00
Costa del Marches – Climate Change A light hearted look at energy efficiency in a rural setting, this 5-minute DVD depicts an ambitious but comical farmer, who plans to profit from climate change by turning his farm into a seaside resort. A good opener to a climate change event, this wry comedy also works for children and young people and comes with an explanatory leaflet.		On DVD @ £5.00
Crafta Webb – Community Film A powerful new rural drama, devised and performed by people from three Herefordshire villages, this is a community film and heritage project, depicting a remote 19th Century community, which mysteriously disappeared. The DVD contains a 40-minute drama, 40 page book and a wealth of background information about the process.		On DVD @ £10.00 with Book
Cyberace - Can you beat racism? An interactive educational CD-Rom game in anti-racism, created to challenge young people's perceptions of race and makes a significant contribution to the citizenship / race debate.		On CD-Rom @ £40.00

Title	Price	Qty	Total
Digital Haiku - Exploring Haiku and breaking barriers The Digital Haiku project enabled gifted and talented pupils from rural Shropshire to engage with Japanese culture and learn video production.	 On VHS @ £5.00
Experts in their Fields – Consulting with Young People Made for The National Children’s Bureau, this video depicts three communities of young people, who speak for themselves and deliver a powerful message about listening to and involving children and young people when planning services in rural areas.	 On VHS @ £5.00
Green Light - Five short fiction films by young people The stories they tell range from tense thrillers to slapstick comedy and magical fantasies. Funded by the UK Film Council’s First Light Scheme.	 On VHS @ £5.00
Magic, Movies and Myths – Digital Folklore 24 young people took part in this digital folklore project and produced two films that explore the stories, myths and tales behind Herefordshire’s darker and more mysterious rural heritage.	 On DVD @ £10.00
Modern Apprenticeships – Young People’s Views Made for the Learning and Skills Council, this 10-minute video depicts a wide range of modern apprenticeships and the young people who have chosen to do them. We see them at work and hear their views and their career plans.	 On VHS @ £5.00
Not in my Neighbourhood – Challenging Stigma This 15 minute video shows two people on a journey of discovery about mental ill health and learning disability issues – notably stigma – through events which happen to them over the course of a day. The accompanying booklet raises issues for discussion and provides background information on definitions, clinical causes and legislation.	 On VHS @ £5.00 (inc. booklet)
Pugilists - A historical and present day account of boxing legends in Herefordshire The story sheds light on one of Hereford’s most famous sons, and one of Sport’s most violent and dangerous professions.	 On DVD @ £10.00
Ram Ravers - “Don’t get mad, get even” A group of motivated young people with physical disabilities embark on a mission to dispel some myths associated with being disabled.	 On VHS @ £5.00
Sex Matters – Challenging Gender Stereotyping Devised with careers advisors and made as an arts and media project with young people across Staffordshire, this CDROM can be used as a resource to stimulate awareness of gender issues for young people choosing school and career options.	 On CD-Rom @ £5.00

Title		Price	Qty	Total
Shroves – Community Film, A wry and amusing look at a future without farming A hill farming community came together to cope with the aftermath of the 2001 Foot and Mouth outbreak.		On VHS @ £5.00
Speak your mind - Sit down, shut up and listen! Set of 3 A2 posters The aim of 'Speaking Your Mind' is to promote the emotional well being of young people.		Posters @ £10.00 for the set
The Real Baby Show - Growing up in 9 months The film was made by a group of young mothers and shows first-hand accounts of being a young parent, providing a realistic and entertaining view of parenting.		On VHS @ £5.00
Travellers Remember - Collection of 25 digital stories Gypsy Traveller families in the West Midlands have recorded personal reminiscences of their parents and grandparents, bringing memories to life, for this heritage media project.		On DVD £10.00 @ each or £15.00 for 2
Travellers Times - Planning Guide Twelve page, colour-illustrated guide to planning permission; extending planning permission; retrospective planning permission; planning appeals; and the new Government guidelines (Circular 01/06).		£5.00
The Vawn – Community Film, A dark myth of the borders A short atmospheric community film, rooted in legend of the borders, reveals tensions between local traditions and the outside world.		On VHS @ £5.00

I enclose a cheque made payable to Rural Media Company to the total sum of

£

Please invoice us, we are a statutory organisation/charity

Yes

No

Name:

Organisation/Charity Name:.....

Address:

Tel: Email:.....