

For our audio commissions, we're interested in works that represent creative storytelling in its broadest sense. We want you to push boundaries and to create works that can surprise listeners with their inventiveness and ingenuity.

We're interested in works ranging from the very short – micro-storytelling of one minute to audio pieces of up to 15mins.

Works might be;

- Poetry/Spoken Word
- Drama / Horror / Thriller
- Experimental Feature
- Comedy
- Music led
- Creative personal narrative

And can include performance, drama, music and sound design and any or all combinations that convey the idea in the best way.

Core characteristics we'll be looking for in our commissions:

- Relevance: the ideas and themes that really matter to you and your community – however you might define it.
- Talkability: shareable content that gets people talking
- Timeliness: things that impact people's lives here and now
- Originality: Content that innovates
